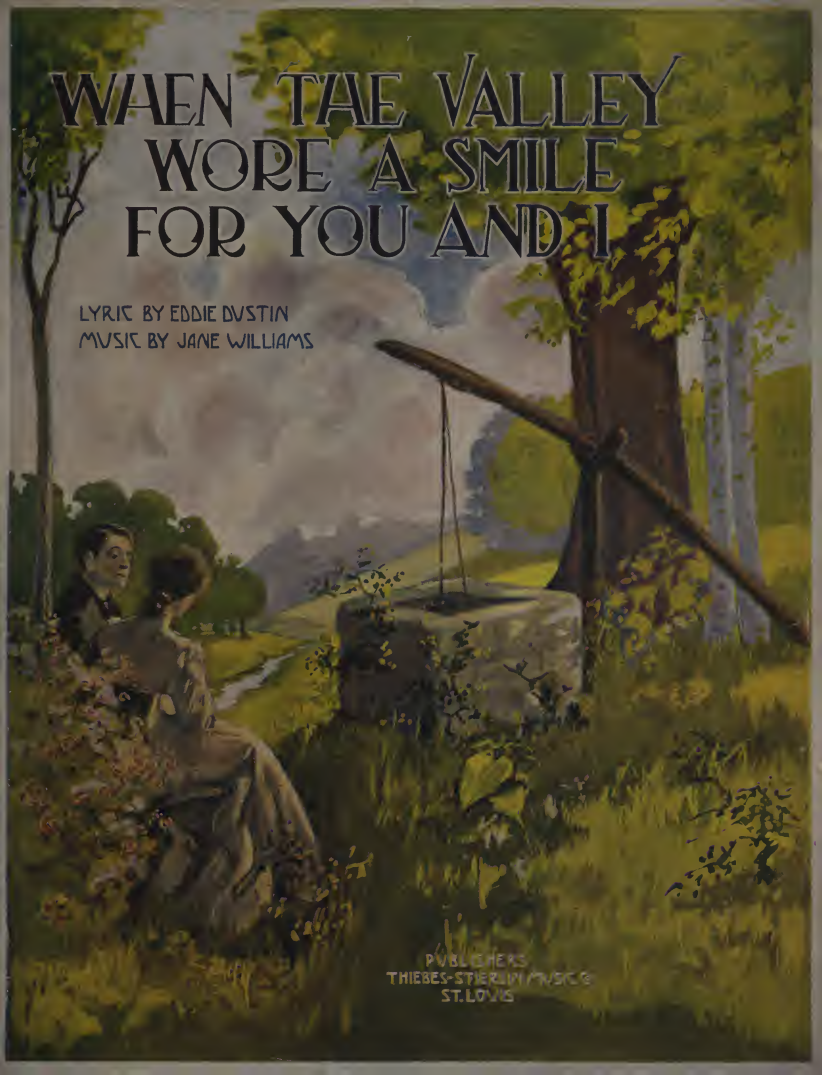
WHEN THE VALLEY WORE A SMILE FOR YOU AND I

LYRIC BY EDDIE DUSTIN
MUSIC BY JANE WILLIAMS



PUBLISHERS
THIEBES-STIERLIN MUSIC CO.
ST. LOUIS

WHEN THE VALLEY WORE A SMILE FOR YOU AND I.

Lyric by
EDDIE DUSTIN.

Music by
JANE WILLIAMS.

Andante moderato.

f
p
It is moonlight in the val-ley and I'm dreaming Of the dear sweet happy days of long a
In the val-ley there is sunshine brightly shining, But the scene is not the same for you're not
p
go, How we'd wan-der neath the silv'-ry stars so gleaming Whisp'ring here, And I miss you all the more at day's de-clin-ing When the Copyright MCMVII by Thiebes-Stierlin Music Co.

words that on - ly lov - ers seem to know; I can close my eyes and see a cou - ple wood - land ech - oes steal up - on my ear; Then the moon comes peeping down in - to the standing, Hand in hand be - side the old moss - cover - ed well, Tho' tis' val - ley And touch - es all the trees with silv' - ry light, And I man - y years a - go I still re - mem - ber, Ever - y
miss you as I nev - er did be - fore - dear, I am CHORUS.
lit - tle se - cret you and I would tell, And the long - ing for the girl I love to night, And the same sweet breeze is blow - ing in the val - ley, And the fleet - ing years have glid - ed swift - ly by, There's no regret since first we met. When the val - ley wore a smile for you and I.